LABOR DAY

Attended by Many Accidents and Fatalities at Zanesville, O.

ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 7.—Labor day was attended by many accidents and several fatalities here. A train of six electric cars got beyond control and dashed down the "Y" bridge leading and side-wiped an approaching train. Two people were fatally injured and several seriously. Miss B. Alexander, wife of a traveling salesman, was severely injured and thrown between the cars and terribly crushed. She is at the hospital and can not live. José McFadden, district organizer of the federation of labor, was probably fatally injured. The others injured are—

Miss Holden of Newark; Mr. Yoder, of Canton; Mrs. Bartholomew, of Evansville.

An hour later a car jumped the track and Mrs. Charles Rodgers, of Zanesville, and Miss Mary Brigham, of Newark, were thrown under the wheels. Physicians say they can not recover. Mr. and Mrs. Boston, variety show people, were also badly injured.

While attempting to alight from a freight train William J. Bern, who was leaving the city for a hunting trip, was thrown under the wheels and badly injured. With superhuman pluck he walked a distance of two miles and died shortly after leaving the city. There were 5,000 visitors in the city.

A MONSTER

Taken From the Officers and Locked Up at Friends Mission, Va.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 7.—A special from Mt. Airy N. C. to the News and Observer says that Sunday afternoon nine friends Mission, Va., Miss Charlotte, a young white girl was outraged by Henry Wall, white aged about 18. After accomplishing his purpose Wall dealt his victim several blows over the head with a box, rendering her unconscious and then placing her head on a log crushed it with a stone, which was left lying bloody nearby. Wall then cut the girl's throat severing the windpipe and dragged the body some 50 yards up a ravine threw it into a branch, where it was afterwards found. Maitland went to a spring and was found washing the stains from his clothing.

The excitement became so intense that Monday afternoon Wall was taken from the officers and lynched near the scene of the crime.

NEW ORLEANS

To Enforce a Rigid Quarantine Against Yellow and Ocean Springs, Miss.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 7.—The state board of health has decided to enforce a rigid quarantine against Yellow and Ocean Springs. Quarantine will also be enforced against the other two.

Yellow fever has broken out in the South.

Consul General Lee sailed from Havana for New York last week on a leave of absence.

Ireland has a gloomy outlook for the winter on account of the failure of the potato, hay and corn crops.

Gen. Lee will not return to Havana. He will be succeeded as consul general by ex-Congressman Aldrich, of Chicago.

The Republican administration at Frankfort is having trouble with the prison chair factory officials and has been compelled to discharge the Superintendent. A scandal in every department is the record of this administration.

The European nations are still deeply interested in the dual alliance. France is going wild over the prospect of Russia's assistance in restoring her lost possessions, while Emperor William is calmly looking on and parading great numbers of troops.

Several hundred men have gone to work on the Skagway trail to the Klondike region. Work is progressing for distances of fifteen miles and it is thought the route will be completed in ten days. This, if done, will enable the company to get in its provisions, stock, mail stations and operate dog teams all winter from Klondike to the American line.—C. J.

Hon. Augustus E. Wilson, of Louisville, one of the most prominent Republicans in Kentucky, is out in a newspaper article, stating that he will not support Todd, the reputed nominee for Mayor, but, however, the Democratic leaders are "Walter" and "Adjunct" in the paper.

Generally speaking, business is better in the United States than for some time past. Natural conditions are chiefly responsible for it. We have abundant wheat and other crops, while there is a great shortage in all foreign countries. Manufacturers are also making a special effort to boom business so as to make it appear that the outrageously high tariff was all that was needed to bring prosperity. Their stocks of products were very low (the factories having been run only enough to barely supply the demand) and a run of several months may be made before over-production will compel them to shut down. The best possible showing will, of course, be made until after the election.

The increased price of sugar and other necessities is one of the benefits of the tariff bill. And as soon as the present stock of clothing and other goods secured under the low tariff are exhausted, there will be a still greater increase in their prices.

Jobbers are sending to retail merchants notices of advances in various lines of goods. We have seen notices of increases of 20, 45 and 100 percent, in wholesale prices of certain lines of goods. Can such increased taxes as this bring permanent prosperity to the common people?

GEORGES CREEK.

As there has not been anything in your paper from this place for a while it will probably be news to some one to know that Scott Preston, of Richardson, and Mrs. Anna Austin, of this place, were married a short time since. Only near relatives invited.

There isn't a new baby in this whole neighborhood, for once.

Morris Williams is moving from near Richardson to John Burgess' farm.

Mrs. J. M. Talbert, of Ashland, and Mrs. J. M. Bolling, of Matewan, W. Va., are visiting at John Burgess'.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Layne, of Ashland, are visiting at George Burgess' near Richardson. Mrs. Layne has very poor health.

H. T. Cassell, who has been in bad health since last winter, is still able to go around in the neighborhood.

H. H. Bond and the Preston boys say they had a fine time at the dance at Richardson Friday night.

The family of George Burgess have been sick with malaria.

Uncle Jemkey Cassell will move to Louisburg in the near future.

H. H. Bond thinks of moving his business outfit to Louisburg this fall. He does fine work at rock bottom prices.

E. Preston sold his store at Myrtle to Meek Bros. Mrs. Preston visited at Myrtle while they were in business.

Lafe Preston, who has been in the timber business in Logan county, West Va., has moved back to E. Preston's.

Ed Burgess and Curt Preston have taken the contract to deliver Scott Martin's ties on the river bank.

Miss Ella Frank is getting along nicely with her school and is giving general satisfaction.

Miss Ida Billups boarded the train Friday for a visit to home folks.

Corn is only tolerably good. Farmers are beginning to pull fodder. Irish potatoes are no good here.

That's right, "Milting," stand up for your town. The streets may not be very fine but there isn't any whiskey in it and its people are industrious and sociable.

The horse-swapping element are trading for old "plugs" to go to the Association with. Any one with corn for sale please call about Christmas or put in ad. In the news.

The wreck of the steamer Favorito is being hauled out of the river. S. Bartlett is putting up a saw mill on Fugitt.

Stock men are thick as candidates and we think by the time the boys get back from the Association confidence will be restored.

MEANDERING MIKE.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schulte, with Meyer Bros.' Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chemelitan Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased and in a remarkable short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatical pains of nondescript or prescription equal to it. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by A. M. Hughes.

Dover, N. H., Oct. 31, 1896.

COXOEY GOT'S OFF THE GRASS.

The Williamson West Virginian says:

Coxey has been up here in the interest of the miners strike. The operators did not need Coxey in their business, and made it bot for him, and now when Coxey gets back home he says something in an interview. Here is what he says:

"I tell you that's a wild country," says he. "Every man goes around with a gun or a knife and a chip on his shoulder. When I was at Matewan the sheriff of the county appeared on the back of a mule, with his Winchester, saying he was looking for him.

"At Keystone four men were shot under my window while I was there. They were engaged in a barroom brawl. The marshal shot at them and they returned the fire, killing him. A police fought the fellows and took them to Webley. At the next town I heard that they promptly broke jail and escaped, with a murderer, who was to be hanged September 3. At Pocahontas the mayor got out a proclamation when I arrived forbidding a public meeting. I bought my ticket, and as the crowd followed I stood in the middle of the railroad track and talked. The marshal slipped up and whispered, 'Please stop talking for I can't keep them in order much longer.' I quit and said I would hold a reception on the station platform. Four toughs threatened trouble, and two other men took my side and told me to hold steady, they'd stay with me. Then the railroad agent read a proclamation issued by the company, stating that assemblages on their property interfered with business and could not be permitted. The crowd just laughed at the railroad proclamation, and I said: 'I have bought a ticket over this line and you boys have come down to see me off, haven't you?' They yelled back 'Yes,' and I said: 'Then stay here till I go,' and they did. When last I saw Pocahontas a rock was thrown at the train, probably at me, and passed between two of the cars doing no damage.

H. H. Bond thinks of moving his business outfit to Louisburg this fall. He does fine work at rock bottom prices.

E. Preston sold his store at Myrtle to Meek Bros. Mrs. Preston visited at Myrtle while they were in business.

Lafe Preston, who has been in the timber business in Logan county, West Va., has moved back to E. Preston's.

INEZ.

A little child of Rev. Wm. Sumpter departed this life last week. The boys say that Bro. Bill Bainter is making fine brandy.

Clark Smith, whom the city papers said was with the Hatfield gang, has returned home. Clark denies ever having been killed while in a fight with the Sheriff of Mingo county. He denies ever having a fight with the Sheriff or having been in the gang that Cap. is said to have around him. He also positively denies having been killed by any person at any time. He does this in the face of such reliable papers as the Post and other daily papers of equally good reputation.

A. J. Auxier, of Pike, and A. J. Kirk, of this place, have been engaged in the defense of Jas. Stepp, of Letcher Co., Ky. Mr. Kirk has just returned and brought his client, who was acquitted, with him. Stepp was charged with arson. Judge Hall said it was one of the most bitterly contested cases he ever had in his court.

L. Dempsey, a leading merchant and enterprising business man of this place, has contracted with a manufacturer of carbon black to utilize the gas on his lands near Wardfield, Ky. Work will soon begin erecting buildings and drilling another well.

The New Domain Oil Company is progressing nicely with their oil well on Clear fork of Rockcastle. They have gone down about 1400 feet and have found an abundant flow of gas. As to whether there are any signs of oil or not, we do not know.

A number of our people are absent this week. Mrs. Josie Crum left last Wednesday for an extended visit to Cynthiaburg, Huntington and Milton, Crittenden county. Let me like he was going out on a trip. He fixed his necktie twice, and then did not go. Nathan Crum is visiting at Williamson, W. Va., this week. Rev. J. C. Thompson is departing for Parkersburg, W. Va., last Friday. He will attend the session of the Western Virginia Conference before his return.

Judge J. S. Patton has erected a hardware store and wagon factory here. James Brown is his principal clerk. The Judge is an enterprising man and an enterprise of this kind will be a great convenience to the citizens of the county.

P. P. Hinkle, proprietor of the Eden House, was at Williamson, W. Va., last week.

L. Dempsey is making preparations for the horse jockeys who inspect the Associations, by laying in plenty of bridles and saddles for the occasion.

J. W. and Wm. Shortridge were up here last week and drove away the few cattle that B. Carter left.

Staley Davis, who lives at Peach Orchard, will leave for Delaware, Ohio, in a few days. He will make the entire trip of about 300 miles on his "cycle." He will go down the Big Sandy to Cynthiaburg, thence down the Ohio river to Portsmouth and up the Scioto valley. He will tell about his trip on his return.

You will excuse me for remarking about myself, but since I came here I have met with phenomenal success. Here is some of my work: I have quite a nice practice in this little city; I have been made medical examiner for two insurance companies, and last week I was appointed physician and surgeon of the Union Pacific R. R. and have free transportation from Omaha to San Francisco. I am also manager of the Opera Drug House. So you see I have plenty to do but little time to read my books and journals. But I must read to keep abreast of the professional work.

I often wonder what those doctors in the west end of the county are doing. I expect Dr. "Nelse" is on his books and absorbs all he can, and Dr. "John J." gets so sensitive over his little troubles that he knocks holes in the wind. He does not do it.

If any one complains about me harassing them "Just tell them that you saw me." And I will close by singing "Sweet Bowie O'Trady" and Dr. Reuben Sparks can close the scene. Good-bye AI Roberts and others.

One of Two Ways

The bladdier was created for one purpose, namely, as a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from carelessness local treatment of other diseases.

Chief Cause. Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladdier troubles. So the womb, like the bladdier, was created for one purpose, and if not docetored to much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases.

It is situated back of and very close to the bladdier, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidney, back, bladder or urinary passage often by mistake, attributed to a female kidney or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment of settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble.

Men are apt to be very forgetful about that grand jury business. They forget that they owe a debt to their country and that it is through discreet and faithful work of that body that criminals are brought to justice and prosecuted. No man should be so nigh in their estimation, either socially, morally or politically, as to evade that body.

Every good citizen should keep a sharp lookout this fall for vote buyers and sellers. Every law-abiding man should constitute himself a committee of one to oppose that nefarious business. This way of voters bleeding candidates and candidates corrupting voters is a shame and a disgrace to all free America. The man who is making a race for public office should not be afraid to speak his mind.

on the streets after dark.

An order was passed allowing all who paid 1897 taxes to receive credit for the amount on their 1897 taxes. This was done because there has always been a question about a levy having been made for that year. A large proportion of tax-payers refused to pay because of this question.

An order was made directing the sidewalks to be laid alongside the Ross and Conley lots.

MARRIED.

Two Lawrence County Men in Ashland.

Lafe and John Baynt, brothers living on Seed Creek, in this county, were struck by a train while crossing a railroad track in a wagon at Ashland Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock. Lafe was killed instantly and John was fatally injured.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Little Shirley, daughter of M. S.
Turner, had a narrow escape from a horrible death last Monday evening. She was swinging in a hammock suspended between two live trees and the body of a dead tree, when the latter gave way and fell toward the children.
Shirley's head was caught by it and pinned to the ground. When her father picked her up she was thought to be dead, but after a few minutes she revived and regained consciousness. Her condition was considered quite critical until today, when a decided change for the better occurred.

The trunk of the tree is ten or twelve inches in diameter and ten feet long. The branches had all been cut away.

KILLED.

PERSONALS.

Elis Sloan and two nieces spent Thursday in Louisa.

Chet Magann, of Uniteletsburg spent Sunday in Louisa.

Mrs. Medley, of Cattellburg, visited Louisa relatives this week.

Aug. Snyder and family went to Ohio this week visit his mother.

Miss Elizabeth Wood, of Greenup, is the guest of Miss Lucy Pritchard.

We are soon to have a singleg school at this place.

She was probably between 50 and 60 years old. Not long since she rented her house and lot at this place and went to Cattellburg to live with her daughters, but soon became dissatisfied and returned here. She tried to get possession of her house, but did not succeed.
On the day before her death she remarked that she would as soon had left her mother, but the latter had gone. This was about five o'clock.
Nothing serious was thought of her illness, however.

Miss Bessie Hopkins, of Pres-tonburg, is the guest of her cousin John Burns.

Claude Norris, of Huntington, was here this week shaking hands
with old friends.

What has become of the News?
correspondents? Wake up ye weary ones! Come again "Sweet Mare." JOE HIGGINS.

Henry Snyder returned to Danville Wednesday to resume his course at Center College.

J. W. M. Stewart has gone to Newport to attend the marriage of his sister-in-law, Miss Gertrude Southgate.

Will Fulker, a bright and deserving boy of this place, went to Lexington this week to enter upon a course at State College.

Miss Neva Stewart went to Newport Monday to be present at the marriage of Miss Gertrude Southgate. From there Miss Stewart will go to Louisville, Nashville and Clarksville, Tenn., to visit friends.

WASTED LIVES.

Some people use their energies in a way that wastes the greater part of them. Hurry, worry, hydration, vexation, determination and foolish mirth keeps them constantly wasting precious vitality.

This is foolishness. People do not want irritation, or stimulation.
When anyone is tired he wants rest not stimulants. When anyone's energies begin to flag recuperation, or irritation, is wanted.

"All tired out," some people say,
"I need a stimulant." A very mistaken idea. No doubt such a one is need of invigoration, recuperation, but not stimulants. Stimulants draw upon the vigor which one already possesses; they produce no vigor. When one is tired out, nervous, weak and despondent, he wants rest, not stimulants. Personalities, health and energy do not consist in the amount of stimulants used.

DEATHS.

Two Good Citizens Laid to Rest.

EDWARD SMITH.—At the ripe old age of seventy-seven years and three months "Uncle Ed" Smith was on the 2nd Inst., called to his eternal reward.

The burial took place on the 4th
in the Cummings Chapel burial grounds.

The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. Clinton Juan.

As unusually large crowd of people attended; several from Ashland, Cattellburg and Louisa. This evidence of high esteem and honor was thoroughly merited in the case of the deceased. He was certainly a true, good man, and a more homely home than his could scarcely be found. He was, more than once during his lifetime, the pos-essor of considerable wealth. And, notwithstanding some reverses, he had a comfortable home.

Morris Isaacson, of Louisville, was found in a ditch near the railroad track at Dinges, W. Va., in a dying condition. A brakeman is charged with foul play.

Pikeville, Ky., Sept. 6.—At the mouth of Feed's creek, during a light, George Miller was struck with a rock by a participant named Sloan and died in four hours. Sloan was arrested and waived examination in court.

Miles Spurlock received the Democratic nomination for Representative in the Breathitt-Lee-Magoffin district.

Mrs. H. K. Moore and children, of Paintsville, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Robert Ward, while hauling cross-ties the other day, got his leg badly bruised by the catch of it.

Jesse Claffin, who is very low with consumption, is no better.

Mollie Atkins, who has been very low with typhoid fever is much better.

The painting of the school house in Dist. No. 11 has added greatly to its appearance.

The timber job, under the management of Atkins & Rose, is giving employment to several men and is progressing nicely.

Thus, Carter visited his brother
Jas. Carter, on Cat, Sunday.
